

Transition Stroud Website Policy

www.transitionstroud.org

Transition Stroud is a not for profit company (no 6978217) limited by guarantee and not having share capital. Transition Stroud was established:

“..... for the benefit of the community of the Stroud District to take, and inspire others to take, collaborative actions that strengthen our local communities and respond positively to the challenges of climate change and declining energy supplies, in accordance with policies and decisions determined by members.”

Further information on the purpose of Transition Stroud can be found in our Memorandum and Articles published on our website.

The Website, and all content, supports the purpose and principles of Transition Stroud.

It is expected that all providers of internet content will support the purpose and principles of Transition Stroud, and do so in a legal, ethical and responsible manner. The site will be monitored from time to time to ensure compliance.

The discussion forums will be regularly moderated or monitored by the content manager to ensure material breaching of this policy is not placed on the website.

Any material posted to the site should not be restricted by copyright, and the provider of the material must take responsibility for this.

Transition Stroud will not accept material relating to a service or product from a for-profit company, unless agreed by Council. Positive considerations will be whether the company is willing to take payments in Stroud Pounds (see website www.stroudpound.org.uk) and whether it is locally based or not.

Requests to post material or links from either not-for-profit or for-profit organisations will be considered on their relevance to the aims and objectives of Transition Stroud.

Transition Stroud cannot be responsible for any actions or liabilities incurred by any person or organisation as a result of taking action as a result of material posted on this website.
